Always Keep Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the House.

"We would not be without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is kept on hand continually in our home," says W. W. Kearney, editor of the Independent, Lowry City, Mo. That is just what every family should do. When kept on hand ready for instant use, a cold may be checked at the outset and cured in much less time than after it has become settled in the system. This remedy is without a peer for croup in children, and will prevent the attack when given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough appears, which can only be done when the remedy is kept at hand. For sale by Dr. W. N. Craig, the popular druggist at Stanford, Ky.

CORNS CURED.—Corn Exit will positively remove corns in four days. The treatment is simple and pleasant and we absolutely guarantee to refund the money to each and every customer whose corns are not promptly removed with entire satisfaction. BLUE EYES.

Thy voice is in my ear, my love,
Thy look is in my heart,
Thy bosom is my resting place
And yet we had to part.

And yet, I trust dear heart
The parting will not be long,
As at every sound my heart doth start
To beating so wildly and strong.

The sun's bright rays are fading
Slowly in the golden West
And my aching heart is longing
To hold thee to my breast.

Come home, come home, Blue Eyes,
That are like the heavens above;
List to the pleading cries
Of a heart so full of love.

And now dear heart, as backward
I look upon scenes that have flown,
And then as I turn to the future,
My heart throbs with the words: "My Own."

C.

To William B. Mulkey.

'Tis sweet to think of angels now,
Of one who is in heaven;
Of one who passed this earthly veil
Whose sins are all forgiven.

For Christ so loved those little ones,
For those the debt he paid,
In heavenly Father's face behold
Is what He truly said.

The lambs, He folds them to his breast
With a loving shepherd's care,
And in His Father's house He finds
A shelter for them there.

From sorrow may you reap the joy
When the cares of earth have flown,
There, mother, you will meet your boy
Before the great white throne.

G. B. Burhans Testifies After Four Years.

G. B. Burhans, of Carlisle Center, N. Y., writes: "About four years ago I wrote you stating that I had been entirely cured of a severe kidney trouble by taking less than two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure. It entirely stopped the brick dust sediment, and pain and symptoms of kidney disease disappeared. I am glad to say that I have never had a return of any of those symptoms during the four years that have elapsed and I am evidently cured to stay cured, and heartily recommend Foley's Kidney Cure to any one suffering from kidney and bladder trouble. HOHE BUILDERS.

You are now planning your house to build this season. Don't forget these facts about Tin Roofing:

FIRE! FIRE! FIRE!

Do you know the feeling these words give a property owner? If you have a tin roof there will be 50 per cent. less danger of fire at your house. When you think how much longer it will last, it is the cheapest and best roof made. Don't fail to consult me and get prices before you decide on your roof.

$3.50.

For $3.50 we give you all that is desirable in a Turn or Welt Sole, Patent or Kid, Button or Lace. It would be hard to get a better shoe.

...SHOE TALK...

That is all talk would not amount to much, but we are ready to back up any statement we make about the shoes we sell. It is a fact that

Zeigler's Fine Shoes

For ladies' balance more good qualities than any shoe made. There are shoes that look as well as Zeigler's, but don't wear as well, and there are shoes that wear as well, but don't look as well. Zeigler's do both—they are made of honest leather by honest workmen—they are good fitters, are comfortable and stylish, and are sold in Stanford by

New Spring Shoes.

The Spring of 1906 styles are now in and ready for your inspection.

Come in and let us fit a pair on you and you will say what others have said: "Zeigler's Shoes are no experiment," but get better each season.

HARDIN. - Mr. Martin D. Hardin, the aged father of Mr. Mark Hardin, of the St. Asaph Hotel, died there at 6:15 Wednesday morning of troubles attendant on old age. He was born in Lincoln county on Oct. 20, 1811, and consequently would have been 95, had he lived a few months longer. At 18 years of age he walked to Monticello and worked at the tailoring business for a while. Later he opened a hotel there which he ran successfully for many years. Mr. Hardin was thrice married, his last wife dying in 1894. One child was the fruit of his first marriage but it died. Mrs. Joshua Berry, of Monticello, now 70 years old, was the result of the second marriage, while the wife who preceded him to the grave only a few years bore him 12 children. The surviving ones are Mesdames J. A. Phillips and G. T. Ramsey, of Monticello, and Messrs. Sam C. Hardin, of London, J. G. Hardin, of Louisville, Mark Hardin of this place, Will C. Hardin, of Memphis, Ben Hardin, of Monticello, and Joe Hardin of Chattanooga. Some eight years ago, Mr. Hardin united with the Methodist church and he was a regular attendant at the services when his health would permit. He was a warm-hearted, good man and the news of his death carries sorrow wherever he was known. Some five years ago he and his brothers, Messrs. Sam and Timothy Hardin, spent a few days at the St. Asaph in what might be called a family reunion, which was heartily enjoyed by them all. At that time their combined ages aggregated 254 years. They are all dead now and three honorable, just men sleep the sleep that knows no waking. The remains were taken to Monticello yesterday and this morning they will be gently laid away to await the resurrection morn. May the good deeds he did in his long sojourn on earth make his last sleep the sweetest and the awakening the most joyful.
